Preface

Education is pre-requisit for socio-economic development of the country. National Education Policies and Development plans emphasized to reduce the gender disparities from education system. Moreover, one of the goals of Millennium Development is “to eliminate gender disparity in primary and secondary education preferably by 2005 and in all level by 2015.” Government of Pakistan has introduced various reforms to reduce the gender disparities in education.

The management of Academy of Educational Planning and Management in collaboration with Pakistan National Commission for UNESCO through UNESCO participation program 2008-09 conducted provincial seminar at Lahore from December 3-4, 2009. In this seminar thirty four middle level Education Managers, Planners and Policy makers have participated. The purpose of this seminar was to investigate the gender disparities in education, causes of these disparities and strategies to be designed for reducing these disparities. Efforts were made to sensitize the participants regarding this crucial policy issue.

I appreciate the efforts made by Khawaja Sabir Hussain, Deputy Director/Project Coordinator and his team members for organizing this seminar. I also appreciate the services of Muhammad Sohail, Research Assistant for typing and composing.
